THE NEUROLOGICAL & COMPLEX CARE AWARDS

Celebrating Excellence in Neurological and Complex Care

About the awards

Care Talk magazine is delighted to announce the inaugural Neurological and Complex Care Awards, recognising and celebrating excellence in neurological and complex care. This unique event honours the dedication, compassion, and outstanding contributions of individuals, teams, and organisations providing high-quality, person-centered care in this specialist field.

The awards will recognise accomplishments across the health and social care workforce including services for individuals living with neurological conditions and complex care needs and those on the neuro - rehabilitation pathway. This encompasses acute, residential and community care providers, clinicians and therapists, volunteers, and suppliers of innovative products, equipment, and services.

There are various categories available for nomination that represent all areas of neurological and complex care, all with the common thread of celebrating outstanding excellence, best practices, dedication, and innovation in the sector.

The Awards will take place on 27th October 2026 at a central London hotel

Why nominate?

By nominating a member of staff, colleague or supplier, you will be supporting their talent, innovation, excellence and commitment whilst also helping to raise the profile neurological and complex care.

Nominations can be made online at www.complexcareawards.co.uk Closing date for nominations is 24th July 2026.

An independent panel of judges will shortlist for each category and from here all finalists will be invited to attend a Gala Awards dinner a central London hotel on 27th October 2026, where the winners will be announced.

To book your place at the event contact:
info@care-awards.co.uk

Who should apply?

The awards are open to the whole of the neurological and complex care workforce. Including but not exhaustive: providers of neurological and complex care, care and support workers and their managers, occupational therapists, physiotherapists, speech and language therapists, clinicians, psychologists and case managers.

Benefits to organisations

By nominating your employees, you will be demonstrating pride in their hard work and excellence. The awards also present an excellent publicity opportunity. Should a nominee be successful, you and your guests will have the chance to purchase places at the superb gala dinner - what better way to raise the profile of your organisation through motivating and paying tribute to your staff!

Benefits to individuals

By nominating a colleague, you will be supporting their dedication and commitment while also helping to raise the profile of neurological and complex care. This recognition underscores the importance of innovative, quality, person-centered care in transforming lives and providing comprehensive support for individuals with complex needs.

The judging day

All shortlisted nominees will be invited to attend an interview. The judging will take place, usually around 6 weeks prior to the Awards and finalists will be announced shortly after.

The gala event

All the finalists will be invited to purchase a table at a Gala Awards dinner which will take place at a central London hotel.
